The text

St Valentine's Day comes on February 14 in America and Great Britain. It is not a legal or a national holiday. This holiday has its story about two sweethearts, that's why it's called the day of all sweethearts. The main symbol of this holiday is valentine. It's a small heart-shaped card. A "valentine" may mean a special greeting-card or a little present. Flowers and sweets are favourite presents which sweethearts send to each other. Valentines are special greeting cards. They are often coloured red, have red pictures of hearts.
